

MASTER IN CITY PLANNING

Department of Urban Studies and Planning (<https://catalog.mit.edu/schools/architecture-planning/urban-studies-planning/#graduatetext>)

Program Requirements

11.200	Gateway: Urban Studies and Planning ¹	12
11.202	Planning Economics	6
11.203	Microeconomics ¹	6
11.205	Introduction to Spatial Analysis and GIS ¹	6
11.220	Quantitative Reasoning and Statistical Methods for Planning I ¹	6
11.222	Introduction to Critical Qualitative Methods ¹	6
11.328[[	Urban Design Skills: Observing, Interpreting, and Representing the City ¹	8
Practicum
At least one core practicum subject ²		9
Unrestricted Electives ³		67
Thesis
11.THG	Graduate Thesis	24
Total Units		150

¹ Students can test out of these subjects but must take an equivalent number of additional unrestricted elective units to meet the 120-unit requirement for coursework.

² Subjects are selected in consultation with the department.

³ Subjects are selected in consultation with the advisor. Graduate-level subjects offered at MIT or other area universities (<https://catalog.mit.edu/mit/graduate-education/other-institutions>) can be used to fulfill part of this requirement.